NOTES & INFORMATION

The purpose of the information contained in this Initial Claims Notification Form is to:-

- (a) enable Abelard to provide the Insured with efficient services in the processing and settlement, if applicable, of the claim. Delays in the provision of information will delay the progress of the claim and lead to frustrations on the part of all parties involved.
- (b) provide the Insurers with sufficient information to enable them to make an informed decision as to whether an Assessor or Attorney, or both, should be appointed to investigate/defend any claim made, or which may be anticipated from the Third Party.

It is imperative, therefore, that:-

1. The Notification Form is completed in full and all required information be submitted to Abelard as soon as possible.
2. All information and documentation requested by Insurers during the progress of the claim, until finalization, be provided as soon as practicable following requests therefore.

We consider the insurance to be a partnership between Insurers and the Insured and would request the full co-operation of the Insured in assisting us to bring any claim to satisfactory and early finalization.
